

UCU STUDENT COUNCIL LEADS “FIRST DAY HIGH UNDER THE SKY” TO WELCOME NEW AND RETURNING STUDENTS

Urdaneta City — The Urdaneta City University (UCU) Student Council led the “First Day High Under the Sky” program, a vibrant university tradition that warmly welcomes freshmen, returnees, and transferees at the start of every academic year. The event featured a series of engaging and inclusive activities designed to help students adapt, connect, and embrace the UCU community spirit.

Through the initiative, the Student Council fostered a sense of belonging and unity among students, creating a positive atmosphere for the beginning of the school year. Faculty members and student organizations also joined the celebration, emphasizing collaboration and shared responsibility in promoting student welfare and institutional harmony.

Aligned with Sustainable Development Goal 16: Peace, Justice, and Strong Institutions, the “First Day High Under the Sky” program exemplifies UCU’s commitment to building inclusive and supportive spaces that encourage participation, respect, and mutual understanding—values essential to nurturing a just and peaceful academic community.
