

URDANETA CITY UNIVERSITY STRENGTHENS COMMITMENT TO SDG 17 THROUGH COLLABORATION WITH THE PHILIPPINE NATIONAL VOLUNTEER SERVICE COORDINATING AGENCY AND NGOS

In line with its continuing dedication to the United Nations Sustainable Development Goal (SDG) 17: Partnerships for the Goals, Urdaneta City University (UCU) has reaffirmed its commitment to promoting collaboration and volunteerism as key strategies for achieving sustainable development. Demonstrating this commitment, UCU partnered with the Philippine National Volunteer Service Coordinating Agency (PNVSCA) and various non-governmental organizations (NGOs) in a benchmarking activity titled “Mainstreaming Volunteerism”, a project designed to explore how volunteerism can be effectively integrated into institutional strategies to advance the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

The initiative emphasized that volunteerism plays a critical role in addressing pressing social, environmental, and economic challenges. The benchmarking activity created a platform for government agencies, NGOs, academic institutions, and volunteer groups to share experiences, identify best practices, and develop action plans for mainstreaming volunteerism across various sectors.
