

URDANETA CITY UNIVERSITY RENEWS PARTNERSHIP WITH 2ND PROVINCIAL MOBILE FORCE COMPANY TO STRENGTHEN COMMUNITY AND STUDENT ENGAGEMENT PROGRAMS

Urdaneta City, Philippines — The Urdaneta City University (UCU) renewed its Memorandum of Agreement (MOA) with the 2nd Provincial Mobile Force Company (2nd PMFC), reaffirming the university's strong commitment to collaborative community service, peacebuilding, and student development. This partnership underscores UCU's dedication to supporting the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (UN SDGs) through inclusive outreach and training programs.

The renewal ceremony was graced by Dr. Josephine S. Lambinico, Vice President for Academic Affairs; Dr. Jerry C. Dichoso, Director of the Center for Community Development and Extension Services (CCDES); Dean Johanns Rabago of the College of Information Technology Education (CITE); along with CCDES staff and CITE faculty. Representing the 2nd PMFC were PLTC. Randy R. Arellano and PCapt. Liandro Velasquez, joined by Mr. Zosimo D. Salazar and Mr. Adonis Bringas from the Office of the Presidential Adviser on Peace, Reconciliation, and Unity.

The renewed partnership signifies the continuous collaboration between UCU and the 2nd PMFC in implementing extension, outreach, and student service programs designed to promote peace, discipline, and community resilience. These initiatives aim to provide students.
