

UCU PERSONNEL ASSOCIATION UPHOLDS FAIR AND TRANSPARENT ELECTIONS

Urdaneta City — The Urdaneta City University Personnel Association (UCUPA) successfully concluded its 2022 elections, emphasizing fairness, transparency, and active participation among university personnel. The event, organized by the UCUPA Commission on Elections, ran smoothly from the filing of candidacies to the proclamation of winners on October 3, 2022, during the university's flag-raising ceremony.

All candidates were given equal opportunity to campaign and present their platforms, fostering a climate of respect and cooperation throughout the process. The newly elected officers, led by Prof. Eleuterio S. "Terry" Sison, were chosen through a democratic exercise that reflected the collective will and unity of the UCU workforce.

In adherence to Sustainable Development Goal 16: Peace, Justice, and Strong Institutions, the UCUPA elections demonstrated UCU's steadfast commitment to accountability, inclusivity, and ethical governance—reinforcing a culture of trust and institutional integrity within the university community.
