In support of the United Nations Sustainable Development Goal 12 (Responsible Consumption and Production), Urdaneta City University (UCU) upholds a strong commitment to sustainability, social responsibility, and ethical procurement through the implementation of its Policy on Ethical Sourcing of Food and Supplies.

Created in 2023 and reviewed in 2024, this policy ensures that all food products, materials, and supplies procured by the university meet ethical, environmental, and social standards. UCU recognizes that ethical sourcing not only promotes responsible consumption but also supports fair trade, sustainable production, and community well-being.

The policy requires that all suppliers, vendors, and service providers adhere to the following key principles:

- Fair Labor Practices: Suppliers must uphold fair wages, safe working conditions, and respect for human rights throughout their supply chain.
- Environmental Sustainability: Preference is given to suppliers who use eco-friendly packaging, minimize waste, and adopt sustainable farming or production methods.
- Local and Sustainable Sourcing: UCU prioritizes local producers and suppliers to reduce transportation emissions and support community-based enterprises.
- Food Safety and Quality: All food suppliers must comply with national safety standards and maintain high-quality, responsibly sourced ingredients.
- Transparency and Accountability: Vendors must provide documentation verifying the ethical and sustainable origin of their products.

Implementation of this policy is overseen by the Office of Environmental Management and the Procurement Office, which evaluate suppliers based on ethical sourcing criteria. Regular assessments ensure that all contracts and purchases align with the university's sustainability goals.

The university also incorporates sustainability standards into its bidding and accreditation processes for suppliers and contractors.
