

URDANETA CITY UNIVERSITY STRENGTHENS GLOBAL COLLABORATION IN SUPPORT OF SDG 17

UCU participates in ASEAN University Network’s webinar on integrating global ranking frameworks for sustainable development

In its continuous effort to advance international partnerships and strengthen its commitment to the United Nations Sustainable Development Goal (SDG) 17: Partnerships for the Goals, Urdaneta City University (UCU), through its Office of External Affairs and Linkages, actively participated in the ASEAN University Network (AUN) Secretariat’s online webinar titled “Integrating THE Impact and World University Rankings for Global Excellence, Internationalisation, and Reputation” held on October 17, 2024.

The informative session brought together universities across the ASEAN region to share best practices in aligning institutional strategies with global ranking systems such as the Times Higher Education (THE) Impact Rankings and the World University Rankings. These frameworks highlight how higher education institutions contribute to the SDGs through teaching, research, outreach, and stewardship.

UCU's participation in this event reflects its dedication to evidence-based and data-driven approaches in measuring its progress toward the SDGs. By engaging in this international collaboration, the university seeks to:

- Strengthen its capacity to collect and analyze SDG-related data,
- Align its institutional initiatives with global indicators of impact and sustainability, and

Foster strategic partnerships with universities and organizations across the region.
