

URDANETA CITY UNIVERSITY ADVANCES QUALITY EDUCATION THROUGH “NURTURING EXCELLENCE AND SUSTAINING TRANSFORMATION” SEMINAR

Urdaneta City University (UCU) continues to uphold its strong commitment to the United Nations Sustainable Development Goal 4 (Quality Education) through the launch of its seminar entitled "Nurturing Excellence and Sustaining Transformation." This initiative reflects UCU's dedication to fostering continuous professional growth, leadership development, and organizational transformation—key components in achieving inclusive and lifelong learning for all.

The seminar underscores the university's belief that employee development is central to institutional excellence. By investing in the growth and well-being of its workforce, UCU promotes a culture of engagement, innovation, and adaptability that strengthens both individual and organizational success. The program emphasizes the importance of cultivating leadership qualities, encouraging creativity, and nurturing resilience among participants to help them thrive in a fast-changing academic and professional landscape.

Through this activity, participants are empowered to lead with vision, embrace change, and align their personal and professional goals with the university's mission, vision, and values. The seminar also promotes continuous learning through skill development, constructive feedback, and reflective practice—ensuring that education within UCU remains dynamic, relevant, and transformative.

By implementing programs like "Nurturing Excellence and Sustaining Transformation," Urdaneta City University reaffirms its role as a champion of lifelong learning and institutional empowerment. This initiative not only strengthens the university's internal capacity but also contributes to the broader goal of advancing SDG 4: Quality Education, where learning, leadership, and transformation work hand in hand to build a sustainable and progressive academic community.

MAKE SDG#4 A REALITY
