Urdaneta City — The University Scribe (TUS), the independent student publication of Urdaneta City University (UCU), continues to champion press freedom and student empowerment through its active reporting and publication initiatives. It consistently features campus events, student achievements, and university activities across its digital platforms and printed issues.

As an autonomous publication managed by students, TUS exemplifies integrity and accountability in campus journalism. It serves as a platform for students to express their views, promote transparency, and strengthen the flow of truthful and responsible information within the university community.

Aligned with Sustainable Development Goal 16: Peace, Justice, and Strong Institutions, TUS stands as a model of participatory governance and ethical communication—upholding the values of fairness, openness, and institutional trust within UCU.
